GN - Nothing to report

AP - Meetings have been held re World Billiard Champs, and a steering committee is progressing well. Papanui and Hornby Clubs may not be suitable venues because of proposed building programmes, and that the Latimer Lodge and richmond Club are both possible venues. Posters were under way from John Barry, and the printer was organised. A budget of $106,000 would be covered by 3 sources of revenue, and a small profit was anticipated. So far 41 players had expressed desire to attend (not including any New Zealanders). The tournament will be 12th August 2011, and this will be before the Rugby World Cup, and entry forms and flyers would be out before Christmas.

Meeting closed 9..10pm
