

Dylan Engebretsen and Kelvin Adrian have defeated John Gower and Hamish Cairney 3-1 in the final of the Canterbury Junior Snooker Pairs held at Woolston Club this weekend.

A strong field of 8 contested the event.

All contestants played each other for one frame with 6 qualifiers. The top two received a bye but played each other for a small cash prize so as not to be disadvantaged by having the bye.

The high break was 33 by Murray Campbell.

Minor Semi Finals

John Gower / Hamish Cairney bt Cory Hall / Elima Peneli 2-0

Dylan Engebretsen / Kelvin Adrian bt Frank Dwyer / Mark Caveney 2-1

Major Semi Finals

John Gower / Hamish Cairney bt Kevin Campbell Avon Placid 2-1

Dylan Engebretsen / Kelvin Adrian bt Gareth Ennis / Murray Campbell 2-1

Final

Dylan Engebretsen / Kelvin Adrian bt John Gower / Hamish Cairney 3-1

Ray Goodall and Keri Tipu won the plate